

Wendy Campbell Perniciaro

2015 Eastern Drive Jacksonville Beach, FL

Work: 904 -997-2738 Home: 904-247-7896

Email: Wpernici@fccj.edu

- Education University of North Florida, Jacksonville, Florida
Master of Arts in English with teacher certification courses,
May 2002.
University of South Florida, Tampa, Florida
Gifted education certification, May 2003.
Loyola University, New Orleans, Louisiana
Bachelor of Arts, 1980
Double major in English and Communications/Journalism.
- Teacher Certification Completed teacher certification and gifted education certification classes. Completed a master's in English as well as 30 hours in graduate education classes. Completed advanced and fundamental programs in cooperative learning for college teaching. Completed requirements for Online Faculty Certificate Program at FCCJ in 2007.
- Teaching Experience Florida Community College at Jacksonville, Jacksonville, Florida
Professor of English (August 2004 – present)
Courses taught online and face to face: English Composition I (ENC 1101); Nonfiction Writing (ENC1102).
Courses taught face to face: Introduction to Literature (LIT 2000); and Developmental Writing (ENC 0021).
Hybrid classes taught: ENC 1101. Will teach a hybrid ENC 1102 in the spring of the 2007-2008 academic year.
Adjunct instructor, English (September 2003-2004) Taught English composition classes at Deerwood and for the FCCJ pilot program at the Jacksonville corrections facility.
Duval County School System, Jacksonville, Florida
Tutor, Reading, San Pablo Elementary (January-May 2003)
Substitute Teacher. (December 2001-2003). Elementary, Middle and High School).
Volunteer, San Pablo Elementary School, Assisted with grant writing projects and other activities and served as the school's parent representative for the Beaches Resource Center.

Academic Service

Involved in curriculum planning and course development through the Sirius online course development program for ENC 1102. Currently serving as the Faculty Intern in the Office of Organizational Learning Services (OLS) for Fall and Spring terms, 2007/08.

Served as a Renaissance Scholar for Project Renaissance and was instrumental in establishing an English Tutoring Lab at Deerwood. Mentored student tutors in the lab.

Other committee and college work includes: hiring committees for Deerwood personnel; reader for Kalliope; CLAST resource specialist; and Writer's Festival contest reader. Also assist with cooperative learning training for faculty and facilitate FCCU career training sessions.

Mentored English adjunct faculty at Deerwood.

Participated in numerous learning communities and student success seminars such as Paragraph Perk Up for developmental writing exit testing; Constitution Day activities that mirrored in-class discussion regarding the First Amendment; Writer's Festival pre-conferences on fiction writing and on the author Mark Twain that were attended by students from English Composition I and II classes; and a nonfiction author seminar for English Composition II students.

Professional Development

Completed numerous professional development courses through FCCU including Blackboard, Creole III and IV, Advanced Word, Lesson Builder, Capstone, Lesson Builder, Dreamweaver, FrontPage, Powerpoint, Multimedia, Advanced Concepts in Cooperative Learning, Student Life Skills, and Turnitin.

Presentations and Conferences

Co-Presenter with Sally Nielsen at the 2007 TYCA-SE Conference, Jacksonville, FL (The Two-Year College English Association)
"Cooperative Groups in Composition Classes"

Moderator for the 2006 Florida First Coast Writer's Festival pre-conference "Readers' Panel"

Attended the International Conferences on Teaching and Learning (2006 and 2007)

Attended the Florida First Coast Writer's Festival (2005-2007)

Academic Publication

Edited and authored an ENC 1102 textbook along with other FCCJ professors for the Sirius project: English Composition II: Writing about Nonfiction Prose Leaving Home: Writing about Our World (Publisher: McGraw Hill 2007)

Other Professional Writing and Editing Experience

Free-lance writer, 1988-2002, Jacksonville, Florida; Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minnesota (1984-1986)

Publications Assistant. Edited, wrote and took photos for monthly hospital employee publication.

Mercy Hospital, New Orleans, Louisiana (1983-1984)

Assistant Director of Public Relations. Responsible for photography, writing and designing of all publications.

McDermott, Incorporated, New Orleans, Louisiana (1980-1982)

Editorial Assistant. Edited copy for all stockholders' publications.

Professional Membership

The Florida Association of Community Colleges

The National Council of Teachers of English

Society of Professional Journalists

TYCA The Two-Year College English Association